

Brad Fitzgibbons

Director, Fitzzy's Toowoomba

A fourth-generation publican and respected leader in Queensland's hospitality industry, Brad Fitzgibbons has dedicated more than two decades to championing excellence, safety, and community connection within the sector. As Director of the iconic Fitzzy's Toowoomba, Brad continues his family's proud legacy of more than 80 years in regional hospitality, overseeing one of Toowoomba's most recognised dining and entertainment destinations.

Qualifications & Leadership Roles

- Graduate: Toowoomba Grammar School (1995)
- Bachelor of Business (Hospitality Management): University of Queensland (1998)
- Director: Fitzzy's Toowoomba – 23 years
- President: Toowoomba Safe Night Precinct Inc
- Board Member: It's a Bloke Thing Foundation (10 years)
- Board Member: Queensland Hotels Association (10 years)

Brad's leadership reflects a strong commitment to community wellbeing, responsible service, and regional development, making him a key advocate for Toowoomba's hospitality and tourism industries.